Numb. 6791.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 28. to Tuesday July 1. 1729.

Hanover, July 5, N. S.

BARON Stein, one of the Duke of Wolfenbuttel's Miniſters, having taken his Leave of his Majeſty, returned home laſt Friday; and the Day following M. de Wedderkop, another of the ſaid Duke's Miniſters, arrived here from Brunſwick, and had an Audience of the King. On Saturday the 2d Inſtant in the Morning, the Lord Townſhend, accompanied by Brigadier-General Sutton, General Diemar, the Count of Altenbourg, and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction, went to Haagenbourg, a Town belonging to the Count de la Lippe Buckebourg, three German Leagues from hence, where the ſaid Count of Buckebourg entertained them very magnificently at Dinner, and in the Evening his Lordſhip and the reſt of the Company returned hither. The Chapter of Hildeſheim having ſent two Canons, and the City of Lubeck two Deputies hither, to compliment the King on his Arrival, they had an Audience of his Majeſty laſt Saturday. Several foreign Miniſters are expected here, and amongſt others, General Seckendorff from the Court of Vienna, and Count Plettenbourg on the Part of the Elector of Cologne. Orders are given for aſſembling 12 Battallions and 18 Squadrons of his Majeſty's German Troops in the Neighbourhood of this City, and the ſame are to be reviewed by the King on the 13th Inſtant. This Review will laſt five or ſix Days, and ſoon after his Majeſty deſigns to ſet out on his Progreſs to the Hartz, Lunebourg, Zelle, Haarbourg, and Bremen. The Count d'Altenbourg ſet out Yeſterday Morning on his Return home. Brigadier-General Dubourgay is expected here ſhortly, having obtained his Majeſty's Leave to come hither.

Paris, July 6, N. S. On the 24th paſt the Court went to Marli, there to continue 20 Days. On the 28th the King reviewed the four Troops of Horſe-Guards at Marly. The Queen will ſtay four Days at Marly after the King's Departure, during which Time his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty will go to Rambouillet. The Cardinal de Fleury having been appointed by the King Superior of the College of Navarre, was attended ſome Days ago by a Deputation of twelve Doctors of that College, to compliment him upon it. M. Dodart, firſt Phyſician to the King, is returned from the Waters of Bourbon, by which he has received great Benefit. M. d'Audiffret being made Governour of the Caſtle of If, his Company of Grenadiers in the French Guards has been given to M. Chaumont, whoſe Company in the ſame Regiment has been ſold to M. Contade, and the Money given to M. d'Audiffret. Father Beguin, who went about two Years ago to redeem Captives upon the Coaſt of Barbary, is expected back ſhortly; it is ſaid he had great Succeſs, having bought upwards of 130 Slaves. The Dutcheſs Dowager of Orleans has been indiſpoſed at the Abbey de Treſnell. The Prince de Bouillon is expected ſhortly from Bruſſels. On the 30th paſt the Abbot Sallier, one of the Keepers of the King's Library, was received a Member of the French Academy, in the Place of the late M. de la Loubere.

Navy-Office, June 27, 1729.

Theſe are to give Notice, That the Two Months Pay in Six, due to His Majeſty's Ships undermentioned, to the Times againſt each expreſs, will be paid in Broad-ſtreet, on Monday the 21ſt of July next, to the Seamen's lawful Attornies, in purſuance of an Act of Parliament in that Behalf. The Chatham, Angleſea and Durſley Galley, December 31, 1728. Plymouth, February 6, 1728. Southampton Hulk, March 31, 1729.

Advertiſements.

June 23, 1729.

STolen or ſtray'd out of the Grounds of Mr. Joſeph Harris, of the Pariſh of Addington, in the County of Surry, a bright brown Cart Gelding, 14 Hands and three Inches high, nine Years old, a narrow white Slip down his Face, his off Foot behind white, and a burnt Mark on the off Hip. Alſo a ſtrong black Mare, 14 Hands and an Inch high, eight Years old, a few white Hairs on her Forehead, a little white on her Lip,